ASTHMA MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

Open Airways for Schools is a nationally recognized asthma education program to help students in grades 3-5 learn to manage their asthma.

Choose one of the following options to have this program at your school:

1. You will be trained to teach 6 short lessons to 8-10 children at your school site. You will be paid a $250 stipend when the program is completed.

or

2. An American Lung Association volunteer will come to your school and teach the lessons. The school nurse will assist in identifying children for the program and coordinating with the school's schedule.
